Sir:

APPEAL BRIEF

REAL PARTY IN INTEREST

The real party in interest is Andy Wolf, Inc., of Hillsboro, Oregon.

RELATED APPEALS AND INTERFERENCES

There are no known related appeals or interferences.

STATUS OF CLAIMS

This appeal is brought from a reissue application based on a design patent.

The single claim stands rejected by the final office action dated March 26, 2004, in which the Examiner objected to the drawings and the declaration. The Examiner subsequently required the submission of the original U.S. Pat. No. Des. 448,441.

STATUS OF AMENDMENTS

Applicant filed a timely reply to the final Office action on June 16, 2004, submitting corrected drawings and a corrected Reissue Declaration. Applicant discussed these documents with the Examiner by telephone in September 2004, and believes they are acceptable, but applicant has not received a written action advising it as to the acceptability of these documents by the Office.

On September 27, 2004, applicant submitted the original U.S. Pat. No. Des. 448,441, within the six month period for response to the final Office action. With this submission, Applicant believes it fully responded to all issues raised in the final Office action and subsequently by the Examiner. On the same date, Applicant filed a Notice of Appeal, in order to preserve pendency of the application.

SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION

The invention is an ornamental design for a snow-gliding apparatus as shown in the drawings.

ISSUE

Whether the requirements for the reissue declaration, drawings, and submission of the original design patent have been satisfied by the applicant.

GROUPING OF CLAIMS

The application contains a single claim.

ARGUMENT

Applicant believes that it has complied with all requirements for allowance of the present reissue application, with the June 14, 2004 submission the corrected reissue declaration and drawings, and the Sept. 27, 2004 submission of the original design patent, U.S. Pat. No. Des. 448,441. If any issues remain unresolved the Board, or Examiner, is respectfully requested to contact the undersigned.

CONCLUSION

Applicant respectfully requests that the Board find that the objections raised by the Examiner in the final office action have been addressed by the submission of discussed above by Applicant, and that all requirements for allowance of the subject reissue application have been satisfied, and return the application to the Examiner for issuance of the Notice of Allowance. If the Board deems a requirement not to be satisfied, Applicant requests that prosecution of the application be reopened, to address the requirement.
